PETITION TO SEAL OR EXPUNGE A CRIMINAL RECORD

Ask the Court to hide or destroy the record of an arrest or case

HOW TO USE THIS FORM

SEALING hides the record from the public but police and courts can still see it. EXPUNGEMENT destroys it entirely. You generally cannot seal or expunge a case where you were adjudicated guilty. Most people are eligible only once, so choose the case carefully.

RELIEF REQUESTED

☐ EXPUNGEMENT
The charges were dropped, dismissed, or you were acquitted. The record will be physically destroyed and you may lawfully deny the arrest ever happened.

☐ SEALING
Adjudication was withheld and you completed all terms. The record is hidden from public view but remains visible to law enforcement, the courts, and certain employers.

☐ ADMINISTRATIVE EXPUNGEMENT
The arrest was made in error or was a case of mistaken identity.

☐ JUVENILE RECORD EXPUNGEMENT
The record was created while the petitioner was a minor.

ELIGIBILITY CERTIFICATION - ALL MUST BE TRUE

- ☐ I was never adjudicated guilty of the charges in this case
- ☐ I was never adjudicated guilty of any felony
- ☐ I have never had a record sealed or expunged before
- ☐ I have no criminal case currently pending against me
- ☐ I completed all court-ordered sanctions, probation, and payments
- ☐ The charge is not one excluded from sealing by rule
- ☐ At least one year has passed since the case closed
- ☐ I am not currently under supervision of any kind
